Comment text:

There is very little change to my ward (currently Belhus) and whilst it is a shame to lose the Belhus name, Belhus Park where Belhus Mansion used to stand, straddles three wards (Aveley, S Ock, N Ock) so it is understandable to change the names to those proposed.

Incidentally, Belhus (or the Estate) would be what older locals would refer to as West of the railway line (taking in Belhus Park and Little Belhus), with the Village (i.e. Ockendon), being the housing around the station and St Nicholas Church, East of the railway line. I live in Orchard Road (Belhus Ward) but consider our location to be village. Perhaps the railway will become a suitable boundary further into the future.
