Changing the boundaries and adding Marton Mannor to Marton east makes no sense at all. Marton Mannor is attached to Marton west. I do feel that the boundaries should be abolished all together as the local councillors have bo say what so ever over the area. This was completely evident when a huge amount of Marton East resedents where apposed to the new junction on cypress road / stainton way and where told that its a council decision that they can not stop. Things need to change for the better in Middlesbrough not just changing boundary lines.
