Related subject: Swanland

I have recently moved to the area and currently renting, looking to buy. There are very large numbers of new houses being built all around the area, thereby increasing the population. E.g crest Nicholson building in Swanland. At Hesslewood Park on edge of Hessle there will be 500 houses more when the Development is completed. (Note, no shops on this estate. Car use needed to get a pint of milk. Failure in planning?)
Are more councillors needed to represent increased population.
Are schools and health services going to be adequate?

Finally I have found navigation around this website very poor. Impossible to find anything.
