I am one mile from Solihull centre and your proposals put me in Meriden for electoral purposes.
Solihull is a metropolitan borough, Meriden is 8 miles away, semi rural and is effectively part of Coventry.
Democracy depends on the public feeling engaged, these proposals effectively disenfranchise me.
There is no reason to make these changes to an constituency that has worked fine since the 70s, other than to pervert democracy and gerrymander elections to support a conservative government that has already brought in voter ID to solve a non existent voter fraud issue.
SHAME ON YOU ALL
