I support the addition of West Tanfield and North Stainley to the division of Masham & Fountains. These communities share many common interests and connections with existing villages in the division. The counter proposal by Ripon City Council that the barracks at Clothholme be added to the division does not make sense and I do not support it. The current military residents have, and the future residents of the development will have, much stronger connections with Ripon than the villages in the hinterland falling that are in the division.
