As someone who lives on Staynor Hall, I feel the needs of our community are best served by remaining in the district of East Selby rather than Barlby and Osgodby. Our local services and requirements are those of town living and are connected along Bawtry Road. To lump the Staynor Hall new build estate in with Barlby and Osgodby two villages that don't even have a bus link to the estate, seems to be done to balance the numbers rather than for the benefit of the communities that North Yorkshire council meant to serve.
