After looking at the information I am struggling to understand why the new proposals would mean splitting the villages along the Wolds Valley. I live in Helperthorpe and under the new proposals we are going to be linked to the Sherrif Hutton parish. Why I do not understand as this effectively means York! The village next to us, Weaverthorpe has been linked with Hunmanby which is closer than Sherrif Hutton. Surely it would make sense for Luttons Parish Council to be included in Hunmanby which means the villages along the Wolds Valley will all be kept together. Both Luttons & Weaverthorpe Parish council regularly work in conjunction with each other if there are issues relating to the valley, in particular the Gypsy Race which runs through both the villages. Gypsy Race starts close to Duggleby. Luttons PC is quite small in comparison to others neighbouring it so personally I think we should be included in the new Hunmanby area as geographically it would make more sense. If we are included within Sherrif Hutton we are literally the last village which means no doubt we will not get any support whatsoever should we require it.,
