This is a waste of public money. The wards have only been in existence for a couple of years. The ward I live in should be in Cumberland, so should Alston and Penrith. Penrith and the surrounding areas to the north are naturally more entwined to Carlisle. When you open the map, the very shape of WAF is crazy. You have villages just miles from Barrow which are in Cumberland, and the same problem in reverse towards Carlisle.

Alston and Barrow in the same unitary authority is just not working.
